SIGNATURE TALKS

Is AI recommending your business?

A practical look at what search systems and AI answer tools can find, cite, and miss. Ana shows business leaders how to inspect the public record behind a company name, service, and city, and how to correct that record so buyers can find the right business with confidence.

A Girl Between Worlds

Ana tells the story at the heart of her memoir: a childhood that began in Guatemala, adoption and a new name in Wisconsin, and the long work of becoming visible without losing where she came from. It is a talk about identity, belonging, determination, and the people who help a life change direction.

AI implementation that explains the why

Implementation succeeds when people understand the reason for each change. Ana teaches leaders how to choose a workflow, set guardrails, train a team on its own work, and keep human judgment in charge, using the same plain sequence she uses in her own practice.
