CORPORATE CAPABILITIES STATEMENT

AnaConnectsYou

Ana Vasquez, M.Ed.

OWNER AND CEO, CONFIDENTIAL ADVISOR

Private capital. Fulfilled contracts. Total discretion.

One operator, two doors. Corporate work for awarded contracts that have to be delivered, and private advisory for principals carrying decisions that cannot be discussed anywhere else. Ana carries the execution from the first conversation to the documented close. Capital is introduced quietly through licensed partners. After an award is signed, she carries the training obligations, compliance requirements, and documentation for the portion placed with her. Corporate awards close audit ready. Private advisory stays centered on the principal and the decision at hand.

The circle stays small by design. Every engagement begins with mutual vetting and a mutual NDA.

Training Fulfillment Arm

FoundHer Elite provides 1,000+ courses in English and Spanish, plus custom programs built to the named obligation.

Align. Structure. Execute. Document.

01 Align

The situation is heard in full. What is needed, what stands in the way, and what has to stay private.

02 Structure

The right people, capital, and obligations are put in place before anything moves.

03 Execute

The work gets carried. Doors open, contracts get fulfilled, and decisions get made.

04 Document

Every engagement closes with a clean file. Records complete, audit ready, nothing left open.

Corporate and Contract Capabilities

Post Award Fulfillment

After an award is signed, Ana carries the training obligations, compliance requirements, and documentation for the portion placed with her. The work closes with records that hold up under audit or review.

Workforce Certification

FoundHer Elite provides 1,000+ courses in English and Spanish. Custom programs are built around the exact training obligation the award names. Training is delivered by qualified providers. Ana administers the program, records, and certification file. Ana never instructs.

M/WBE Performance

A certified partner primes can route spend and training through, with the documentation, spend records, and reporting required for measurable supplier diversity and subcontracting performance.

Private Capital Placement

Funding placed outside the banking system through licensed partners as part of the operator scope. $100,000 to $100M and beyond in working capital and contract funding introductions. We do not lend, underwrite, or give investment advice. Referral relationships are disclosed in writing.

Principal Alignment

The right principals brought into purposeful conversation with clear commercial intent. One accountable operator holds the scope together through the documented close.

Confidential Advisor

Private analysis, calm crisis defusing, and direct access before serious decisions. Entry is by referral or introduction. Every engagement begins with mutual vetting and a mutual NDA. Every retainer agreement is for one year.

The Full Reach

Private Sourcing

Specific assets and opportunities found through trusted access while the principal stays private.

Strategic Advisory

An independent voice before the move, with no agenda beyond the principal and the outcome.

Aircraft Sourcing

Rare aircraft reached through direct principal relationships and handled with discretion.

Emergency Response

Orchestration through trusted relationships, including helicopter aviation and airport development.

Collectible Automobiles

High value vehicles reached through private access, including pieces outside the open market.

Digital Assets

Private digital asset markets reached through established international relationships.

Corporate Giving

Giving directed through Guided Healers so retained companies know where their support goes.

Regenerative Wellness

Your body has its own capacity to repair and restore. The practitioner behind this work serves the elite class and has never needed to market to anyone. Ana holds the private introduction, and access is selective. Ask her about it in your private conversation.

Why AnaConnectsYou

Direct principal execution

Ana is the named operator on every engagement. No account layer and no junior handoff.

One accountable relationship

Capital, contracts, certification, sourcing, counsel, and corporate giving connect through one operator.

A deliberately small circle

The roster is limited and engagements are chosen so each receives the attention promised.

Audit ready documentation

Rosters, certificates, spend records, and compliance files are standard deliverables.

Worldwide reach

Based in Lake Worth, Florida, with relationships and engagements reaching nationally and internationally.

Private by design

Referral or introduction opens the conversation. Mutual vetting and a mutual NDA protect the engagement.

Scope Boundaries

- Capital is arranged through licensed partners. We do not lend, underwrite, or give investment advice.
- We do not staff, dispatch, or qualify trades.
- Training is delivered by qualified providers. We do not represent ourselves as an authorized OSHA or DOL training provider.
- The private practice is confidential business and decision counsel. It is not therapy, counseling, or clinical care.
- Procurement decisions remain with the agency or prime. AnaConnectsYou does not hold contracting officer authority.
